New media popular in Gaudeamus Music Week

Gaudeamus Music Week, Muziekgebouw aan 't IJ. Tues 4/9: Doelen Ensemble cond. by Maarten van Veen, and Netherlands Vocal Laboratory cond. By Romain Bischoff. Wed (www.gaudeamus.nl)

'Rondo' by eminent Georges Aperghis, and the wild, rock-like, growling 'Jugular Shuffle' by Florian Magnus Maier. In 'Around a sea' by Esaias Fogelvik one heard beautiful electronic sounds and a good feel for drama in a well-constructed expiation. Perhaps the singers' notes were somewhat less revolutionary than the electronics.

'Flux II' by Jean-Philippe Calvin, an excellently performed Berio-like trumpet work with a lot of muting, colours and theatrical gestures.
